

Jennifer Convery

Group President – Griffith Foods North America

Jennifer Convery is a recognized food industry leader with strong commercial experience. An authentic, purpose driven leader, she consistently delivers strong profit growth through strategic customer focus, solid operational alignment, and developing an inclusive, empowered culture. She has a special talent for organizational design and talent development.

Jennifer is Group President, Griffith Foods Inc., leading the United States, Canada and Mexico business units. Griffith Foods is a privately held global developer and manufacturer of food ingredient systems.

In her P&L leadership role, Mrs. Convery collaborates closely with Griffith Foods' owner and the worldwide management team on establishing global strategic direction, developing major business-building initiatives, implementing operational planning and ensuring employee performance. In addition, Jennifer has deep expertise and leadership-level relationships spanning the retail, restaurant, processing and consumer packaged goods sectors.

Earlier in her career, Mrs. Convery served as National Account Director for the McNeil Specialty Products division of Johnson & Johnson (1990-1992). She began her career with General Mills' Consumer Packaged Goods division (1985-1990).

Mrs. Convery serves on the board of Directors for DOT Foods, Inc. and the Alzheimer's Illinois Chapter Board. She has also served on the board of directors of the industry's influential Women's Food Service Forum. She is a member of The Committee of 200 (C200) and the International Women's Forum (IWF). Jennifer most recently completed the Malcolm Baldrige Fellowship Program.

She holds a BA in History from Brown University, where she was a nationally ranked squash player and All-American athlete.
